As a participant from in the exchange program under the FIPSE Ruminant Production in the 21st Century Project, from , I understand that the project will cover the costs of my roundtrip flight to the airport closest to my selected host institution. In addition, the project will provide me with $4000 per semester (2 semesters maximum) for living expenses to be provided in two installments: 1) at the beginning of my program, and 2) midway through the semester at the host institution. One thousand dollars will also be available to cover a language learning program.

Should I choose to terminate my participation in the program, prior to my completion of the semester at my host institution, I will repay all expenditures by the program on my behalf to include the $4,000 stipend for living expenses, monies spent for language learning up to $1,000, and the cost of my roundtrip airfare.
