FEATURING

Paul Beck
University of Arkansas

Paul attended Oklahoma State University from 1986 to 1993, receiving both a bachelor's and a master's in animal science. Paul completed his Ph.D. at the University of Arkansas in 2003 and joined the animal science faculty in 2004. Paul conducts research at both the Southwest Research and Extension Center and the Livestock and Forestry Research Station.

Brian Triplett
Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service

Brian is the county Extension educator for agriculture and natural resources in Red River County, Texas. He attended Texas A&M University, earning a bachelor's degree in animal science in 1991 and a master's degree in physiology of reproduction in 1993. In 2012, he completed an Ed.D. from Texas A&M and Texas Tech universities.

Dave Lalman
Oklahoma State University

Dave is a professor in the Oklahoma State University Department of Animal Science. His position is state Extension beef cattle specialist with primary responsibilities in cow/calf and stocker cattle nutrition and management. Dave's Extension and research program emphasis is on increasing profitability and/or reducing cost of production through improved forage utilization, grazing management, cow efficiency, defining optimal supplementation practices and evaluating beef production systems.

Derrell Peel
