5pm – 7pm

WHERE

115 AGLS

MEET:

Laurel Poff

Laurel Poff is a Regional Recruiter for the U.S. Forest Service. She grew up in Anchorage, Alaska and served in the US Air Force after high school. She attended college at Southern Illinois University, completing dual bachelors in Aviation Management and Elementary Education. After graduation, she went on to serve with the Peace Corps in Namibia, Africa. Returning stateside, the great outdoors Laurel grew up in called her name and she transitioned into her current federal occupation with the United States Forest Service. Laurel loves her work and is excited to pursue her passion for the outdoors, as well as share opportunities to work in conservation of our nation's forests and grasslands with the Forest Service.
